D. EVERETT ALLEN, JR.,
BURT OTTERSON,
JOSEPH LABBEE,
Selectmen of Hooksett,

TO THE TAXPAYERS AND VOTERS OF HOOKSETT

The Selectmen wish to furnish the taxpayers with the information regarding the reimbursement of the town for money paid out for medical services and hospital fees for Alvin E. Heath who was so severely burned in forest fire of April 1938. Through the sponsorship of Rep. Edward M. DuDevoir and assistance of Rep. Alphonse Lafond a bill was passed at General Court in Concord granting fifty (50) per cent of money paid out. The amount received by the town was $881.81.

We were also able to obtain a substantial recompense for Mr. Heath for his suffering and inability to continue his former employment. Safeguarding the town against a like circumstance, we have taken out a blanket insurance covering Fire, Police and Highway departments.

Hooksett, N. H., February 13, 1940.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the School Board of Hooksett:

In this, my sixth annual report, your attention is called not only to the customary activities of the schools but also to new obligations and responsibilities which changing conditions are placing upon an efficient school system.

ORGANIZATION AND INSTRUCTION

In September, 1939, three changes occurred in the staff of teachers. Edna B. Wilson, one of the most efficient teachers in the grammar grades of the Village School and later in the Martin's Corner School, was released from her contract to accept a position in the schools of Rochester, New Hampshire. Ruth M. Ladd, a graduate of Plymouth Teachers College and for seven years a teacher in the schools of Fremont and Washington, New Hampshire, was selected to succeed Miss Wilson at Martin's.

Robert L. Stevenson, a 1939 graduate of the four-year course of Bridgewater Teachers College, replaced in the Village School Peter J. Valeska who withdrew at the close of the school year to pursue graduate study at Harvard University.

Leonard R. Nisula, a 1938 graduate of the four-year course at Fitchburg Teachers College with a Masters Degree in Education from the same institution in 1939, was elected teacher of the Hackett Hill School, succeeding Valma B. Morrill who requested release from her contract with Hooksett to accept a graded school position near Keene.

In the case of a large number of pupils it has been found necessary to continue in the intermediate grades instruction in oral as well as silent reading for the development of greater skill and comprehension. This involves some added expenditure which another year might be well invested in a social science paper such as "My Weekly Reader," "Our Times," or "Current Events" for the use of each individual pupil. To a limited extent these are now procured by individual pupils. These papers supply much practical and purposeful reading, and prepare a foundation for worthwhile discussions.

Under the direction of Tascia M. Platek, teacher of Grades V and VI of the Village School, definite progress is being made in music. This instruction seeks four objectives. First, that from singing experiences the pupils shall derive satisfaction and pleasure; second, that pupils shall come to know and appreciate beautiful songs and compositions; third, that each individual shall acquire an increasing amount of skill in singing; and fourth, that the pupil shall learn to use singing as a medium of self-expression.

Fifty copies of the "World of Music Series" have been added recently to the instructional materials of the Village School.

In the remaining schools of Hooksett the need of organized instruction in music is seriously felt. The services of a trained music teacher such as you employ at the Village should be provided for all schools.

For facilities and instruction in manual training and other practical arts we are dependent upon the co-operation of 4-H Clubs. Consequently these facilities are very limited.

The Metropolitan Achievement Tests, given annually since 1934 to all fifth grade pupils, show that Hooksett pupils average higher than the standard score set in reading, English, literature, history, and geography.

SPECIAL ACTIVITIES

The hot lunch service, maintained at the Hackett Hill School through the organized co-operation of the parents, is one of the most valuable health activities in which a community can participate. Efficient lunch service has also been conducted by the teachers and pupils in the Martin's, Neal, and Village Schools. Through the co-operation of Mr. Fraser, state director of surplus commodities, fresh and canned fruits, butter, and cereals have been distributed in these schools to supplement the local contributions for free lunches.

The reports of your school nurse and of other school nurses in the state show that the health conditions of the children are definitely better where, (1) classrooms are evenly heated and adequately ventilated, (2) regular physical training is given the boys and girls of the upper grades, (3) all pupils participate in out-of-door activities during noon and recess periods, and (4) hot lunches are provided for all pupils who remain during the noon hour.

Your teachers and nurse were much gratified by the interest shown in the dental clinic, conducted by Dr. Mayo last June. Sixty-five pupils were treated at the clinic in Hooksett. A total of 114 school children received dental care during the year. The number of corrective treatments for throat and eye defects doubled the record of the previous year. Such co-operation between parents and school nurse contributes definitely to the health, happiness and school efficiency of the pupils.

In the annual spelling contest, held in Hooksett last June, your town was represented by Helena Maciolek from Grade VIII of Lincoln Park, Evelyn Belisle from Grade VI of Hackett Hill, and Robert Senechek from Grade IV of Neal School. By a score of 290 Hooksett tied with the Raymond team for second place.

By the enrichment of experiences through observation trips and the use of motion pictures of various geographical and industrial scenes, a much more intelligent interpretation is brought to the study of geography, history, and science in the upper grades. During the year such observation trips were made to Cote's Bakery in Manchester, where the replacing of hand labor by machinery was especially emphasized, and again to the Auburn Museum where the pupils examined the farm and household tools and utensils used by the self-sustaining families of primitive New England. Similar observation trips were made by the different schools to the Hampton Coast Guard Station, Benson Animal Farm, Manchester Bell Telephone System, Smyth Amateur Radio Station, Currier Art Gallery, International Shoe Company, 7-20-4 Cigar Factory, WFEA Broadcasting Studio at Hotel Carpenter, and to the Manchester Fire Department.

BUILDINGS AND EQUIPMENT

An increasing interest is shown by your janitors in the care of buildings and in prompt attention to those minor repairs so essential to economy.

Repainting of the outside of the Neal School, the complete refinishing of both classrooms, corridors, and toilet rooms of the Martin's School, and attention to floor timbers at the Lincoln School, should receive attention during the coming summer.

This year new electric light units were installed in the three classrooms at Lincoln Park. The open shades and one hundred watt lights were replaced by two hundred watt lights in diffusion globes.

The wood-burning box stove in the Neal Grammar School has been replaced by the coal heater formerly used in the spare classroom at Martin's.

The neatness and sanitation of the lunch room at the Village School, now used by nearly eighty pupils, could be greatly improved by applying a waterproof floor paint similar to that in the adjoining playroom.

Before another year the lunch room should be equipped with kitchen sink and drying racks, and supplied with hot and cold water from the present service tanks.

New window shades and the sanding of the desk tops to a lighter finish would add much to the attractiveness of the schoolroom at Hackett Hill. This community is to be congratulated upon the re-surfacing of the playground and the initiative of its Parent-Teacher Association in obtaining other improvements.

IN CONCLUSION

Direction and assistance in vocational guidance is now a recognized function in our best high schools and academies. Yet the school life of some children must end with the grammar school or even earlier. To these children and to a few who fail to complete a high school course, the public schools with the assistance of the National Youth Administration and similar agencies face a new responsibility.

Through the assistance of your teachers and the school nurse a personal record of every pupil who graduated from your schools is now made a part of the permanent files in the Superintendent's office.

For the first time this year we are attempting to follow up those graduates who are not in school and whom we may assist in vocational placement. Today the duty of the community does not end with the presentation of a diploma.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE H. HARMON,

Superintendent of Schools.
